@IlvesToomas How do you feel about this plan for EU Internet surveillance? bit.ly/PBRy4m

Toomas Ilves

Toomas Hendrik Ilves:

"Far too many countries are speaking about Internet freedom as a threat to security. Cyber security is necessary to restrict criminal activities, but not the exchange of ideas and information among people or to limit virtual gatherings.

Despite the fact that Estonia experienced a cyber attack five years ago, we do not support regulation or censoring of Internet freedom. No security, including cyber security, can be provided at the expense of fundamental freedoms, including Internet freedom," said president Ilves.

My qualifications

- 3/5 of my life passed in a totalitarian country
- My experience with KGB is probably larger than yours
- I have experienced everyday doublespeak and censorship,
 - I smell it at a distance and I read between the lines
- I have grown up amid numerous falsifications of history and media
 - Katyn – who did actually murder Polish officers?
 - Estonian War of the Independence 1918-1920
 - did it happened at all?
 - How much victims due to train accident in Tallinn,
 - 1980-10-04? - 2? 8? 40?
 - Lies, lies, lies...
 - Were these lies at least effective?

George Orwell

- Author of famous „1984“
 - The Ministry of Truth
 - “thoughtcrimes”, “newspeak”, “doublethink”.
 - WAR IS PEACE,” “FREEDOM IS SLAVERY,” “IGNORANCE IS STRENGTH.
- George Orwell rightly stated: “The further a society drifts from the truth, the more it will hate those that speak it.

BTW, The lies are different.

- There are „Auschwitz lies“,
- There are some even more interesting lies....

What were these guys
JOINTLY doing in Brest-
Litowsk, Poland ?

GlavLit, Samizdat

- GlavLit = Head Office for Protection of State Secrets in Publications
 - Well, actually Censorship Committee
- Samizdat = SelfPublishing
 - bad, bad people trying to publish books manually or with typewriters (hm, like Alexandr Solzhenitsyn, Nobel Prize @1970)
- Various labels
 - Kulak – an agricultural owner, using external manpower.
 - Enemy of the nation (up to 1950-s)

Hey @ButKlaasen, any thoughts on being more open and transparent about the CleanIT project as you move forward?

Runa A. Sandvik @runasand

Dear @EU_Commission, there is so much wrong with CleanIT I don't even know where to begin. Please sit down and reconsider the proposal.

Again a new government supporting partner for 'Clean IT'. Welcome Greece! Now a 10 country effort with private sector. cleanitproject.eu/partners-and-p...

Clean-IT leaked papers

- "Knowingly providing hyperlinks on websites to terrorist content must be defined by law as illegal just like the terrorist content itself"
- "Governments must disseminate lists of illegal, terrorist websites"
- "On Voice over IP services it must be possible to flag users for terrorist activity."
- "Internet companies must allow only real, common names."

Clean-IT leaked papers

- "Social media companies must allow only real pictures of users."
- "Governments will start drafting legislation that will make offering... a system [to monitor Internet activity] to Internet users obligatory for browser or operating systems...as a condition of selling their products in this country or the European Union."

An open debate? Or a doubleplusgood duckspeak?

Russell-Einstein Manifesto

It suggests that neither the public nor the governments of the world are adequately aware of the danger.

STATEMENT

In the tragic situation which confronts humanity, we feel that scientists should assemble in conference to appraise the perils that have arisen as a result of the development of weapons of mass destruction, and to discuss a resolution in the spirit of the appended draft.

Summary

- Internet is the best thing the humanity has.
- Please do not play with our freedoms and future!
- Convince your governments not to make harm

I do not want the censors back.

What about you?

Now everything is crystal clear
and most likely there are no questions.
Google will help you further.

Well, one single (last) question:

[Q] What is a technology of Political Control?

[A] Do google for „STOA appraisal“
